How to get a refund on a Microsoft subscription

▶ Applies To

Am I eligible for a Microsoft subscription refund?

To check refund eligibility on a subscription you purchased from Microsoft, you will need to cancel it first.

Note

- Not all cancellations will result in a refund.
- If you purchased your subscription in Germany, you can cancel without signing into your Microsoft account. You'll need a few pieces of information to do so. Cancel a Microsoft subscription acquired in Germany.

If you want a refund because don't recognize a charge on your account, you can now investigate it on the Manage your payments page of your Microsoft account dashboard. Learn more.

Sign in to cancel your Microsoft 365 subscription yourself

To check refund eligibility on a Microsoft 365 Basic, Personal, Family or Premium subscription you purchased from Microsoft, you will need to cancel it first.

Follow the steps to cancel the subscription:

1. Go to account.microsoft.com/services/microsoft365 and if prompted, sign in with the same Microsoft account used to purchase your Microsoft 365 subscription.

   Sign in

   Note

   - It's important to sign in using the account which purchased the subscription.
   - If you purchased a Microsoft subscription from Google Play or the Apple app store, contact their customer support for cancellation or refund. For Play Store purchases, go to Learn about Google Play refund policies. For Apple App Store purchases, request a refund from Apple support.
   - If you cancel a subscription in Canada, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Israel, Korea, Netherlands, Poland,

Portugal or Turkey, you may be entitled to a prorated refund. Learn more.

2. Find your subscription and select Manage.

   Note

   If you see Turn on recurring billing instead of a link that says Manage, this means your subscription is already set to expire on the date shown and you won't be automatically charged after this date. There's nothing further to do at this time and you can continue to use the product until the subscription expires.

3. On the next page, select Cancel.

   Note

   - The option might say Upgrade or Cancel, depending on your subscription.
   - If you don't see an option to Cancel but instead see a link that says Turn on recurring billing, this means your subscription is already set to expire on the date shown and you won't be automatically charged after this date. There's nothing further to do at this time, and you can continue to use the product until your Microsoft 365 subscription expires.

4. Scroll through and follow the instructions on the page to proceed with cancellation. To view our complete cancellation policy, see Microsoft Store Terms of Sale.

   Caution

   If you cancel a Microsoft 365 Basic or Microsoft 365 Personal subscription, your storage allowance will revert to 5GB of cloud storage, which includes your OneDrive and Outlook.com attachments, and 15GB of Outlook.com storage.

   If you cancel a Microsoft 365 Family or Microsoft 365 Premium subscription, all the people you shared your subscription with will also have their storage allowances reduced, as well as losing other subscription benefits.

If you or people you shared a subscription with have used more than the free allowance:

- You won't be able to upload, edit, or sync new files (such as Camera Roll) to your OneDrive,
- You will not be able to send or receive email in Outlook.com.
- After 12 months, we may delete your OneDrive and all files within it.
